Date/Time:	Thursday 12 October 2023 9:30am - Thursday 23 November 2023 2:00pm (Students will attend their swimming lesson at various times throughout the day.)
Description:	Students will attend a 7-week swim and survive program.
Cost:	$80.00
Venue:	The Forum (130 University Drive, Callaghan, NSW)
Transport:	Students will travel to and from the Forum by bus.
Uniform:	Full school uniform to be worn
Food:	Students will need to pack their normal lunch and recess as they will still have these at school. Times may be altered due to when each Year groups lesson is on.
Please Bring:	Students will need to come to school in their swimmers with their school uniform over the top. Please pack underwear for your child to change in to after the lesson. Students will also need to bring a plastic bag to put their wet clothes in, a towel and goggles.
Additional Information:	Each lesson will go for 45 minutes. This time will consist of 30 minutes of swimming instruction and 15 minutes of water survival instruction in the pool. Children will be placed in groups according to their swimming skills on the first day. Groups will contain 6, 8 or 10 students depending on their skill level. All instructors are fully qualified with Austswim. The program will cater to all ranges of swimming skills. If your child cannot swim, they will be in a learn to swim group. If they can swim they will work on stroke correction and endurance. All groups will participate in activities aimed at safety and survival around water. The cost of this activity includes bus fare, pool entry and lessons. The cost of this activity is non refundable due to the school having to pay the service providers prior to the activity. If there are issues around a child's behaviour, a parent/caregiver will be required

	to attend the lessons to ensure they are able to participate safely. If students do not bring their swimming gear, they will still be required to attend the lesson and observe from the side of the pool. No money will be accepted after the due date. If your child has not paid they will stay at school during their class session time.
Due Date:	Monday 28 August 2023
